Deliver the best Apple experience – at scale

An Apple Readiness Review will help you maximise your ROI and deliver the best experience for your users. Our Apple Accredited Engineers will work with you to understand your business and produce a comprehensive Apple Readiness Report. The service is ideal if you want to improve security and scalability of Apple within your organisation.

The service

An Apple Readiness Review includes a series of remote or on-site sessions to assess your IT infrastructure. The assessment will cover:

- Deployment and device management.
- Endpoint and platform security.
- Networking.
- HR and onboarding.
- End user interaction.
- Core application compatibility.
- Support.
- Hardware and software procurement.

You'll receive a comprehensive Apple Readiness Report that summarises the review's findings and features recommendations to help you deploy Apple technology at scale. We will also produce a scope of works required to implement the recommendations from the report.

The benefits

With an Apple Readiness Review, you'll ensure you're all set to support your employees in using Apple devices and benefit from best practice guidance on how to manage your entire estate.

Implementing the recommendations in your report will allow you to deliver a better return on your Apple technology investment, ensure security and compliance and minimise support cases by optimising your environment. The service also makes it easier to scale your Apple estate and offer Apple through employee choice.
